

Surrey County Notes by Chris Andrews

At the Commonwealth Games Surrey based Paul Drinkhall won Gold in the Men's Doubles thereby successfully defending his title with Liam Pitchford. Paul also won a bronze medal in the team event where England beat Nigeria in the Bronze medal match. As well as this Paul just missed out on a Bronze in the Singles event, doing a massive comeback from 3 sets down to 3-3 and 9-9 points in the deciding set only to lose the last two points.

Kim Mudge was an official umpire at the Games and Michael Loveder an official photographer.

Krish Chotai won his first 4 star tournament at St Neots by beating Bertie Kelly 3-2 in the final.
