

Surrey County Notes (Dec. 2013) by Chris Andrews

Joanna Drinkhall lost to Li Fen the World Number 88 at the Liebherr European Championships held in Schwechat, Austria.

Darius Knight won the Brabar Bristol Grand Prix beating both Paul Drinkhall and Ryan Jenkins in the process. At the same event Joanna Drinkhall lost in the final of the Women's Singles and she also lost in the final of the Open Doubles against a male pairing. As well as this Joseph Langheim-Ferrieria won the Men's Band 2 event.

Marcus Giles won the Newcastle Grand Prix Men's Band 2 event.

At the first Tees Sport 2 star event of the season Liam Grant swept all before him in the junior boys Band 1 event and took the prize of £150. In second place was Olamide Wuraola who won £50. Ovi Eyarhono came second in the Junior Boys Band 2 event.

Aaron McKibbin represented the GB Para Table Tennis team at a special Paralympic legacy event organised by the British Embassy in Rome.

Joanna and husband Paul Drinkhall demonstrated table tennis in Horley, Surrey, for the local Scouts using instant ping pong kits.

I am very sorry to tell you that Jean Crayden (widow of Ron Crayden former Surrey President) has passed away.
