

Rosehill Table Tennis Club Championships 2013

Rosehill Table Tennis Club held its club championships on three nights spread over three weeks. On the first night there were two junior events Under 14 and Under 17 Singles. The Under 14 champion was Indip Niroula who defeated Sanil Ruckhunty 12-10, 11-6, 12-14, 11-8 while the under 17 champion was Andrew Jackson beating George Wellsmartin 7-11, 11-2, 8-11, 12-10, 14-12. Both these finalists would achieve further success in subsequent events

In the Tip Toe Doubles (highest ranked partners lowest ranked) the four group qualifiers were Chris Bush and Dilan Patel, Tony Stephens and Richard Middleton, Sharif Sabir and Frances Martin, and George Wellsmartin and Indip Niroula and it was this pair who both collected their second trophies of the evening winning the final against the Stephens/Middleton pairing 11-8, 5-11, 11-9, 4-11, 11-7

The Open Singles group winners, qualifying for the knock out stage, were Chris Bush, Steve Sharp, Barry Hudson, Russell Hurley, Vince Ang, Lee Farrier, Puvidran Masilmamy and Rui Santo. The final was contested by Chris Bush and Rui Santo with Chris Bush retaining his title of club champion beating Rui Santo 13-11, 11-9, 11-5.

Andrew Jackson took his second title when he won the Consolation Singles taking the final against Colin Parkinson 11-3, 11-6, 11-5

The Junior Tip Toe Doubles group qualifiers were Parth Patel and Dilan Patel, Kian King and James Dailey, Nathan Morgan and Evan Perry, and George Wellsmartin and Mathew Cheeseman. The semis and finals would all prove to be very hard fought with the final resulting in a win for Parth Patel and Dilan Patel beating Nathan Morgan and Evan Perry 8-11, 11-2, 11-4, 11-6.

The final event was the handicap singles. Group winners were Vince Ang, Luca Musacchio, Andrew Jackson, Daniil Klimentko, Richard Middleton, Aaron Suaiso, George Wellsmartin and Parth Patel. The knockout stage would produce another final between Andrew Jackson and George Wellsmartin with Andrew Jackson making it a hat trick of titles with a narrow 44-42 win.