Despite a valiant effort the boys could only record one win between them when Yasith Senanayake beat Staffordshire's Luke Gittins 7, 9 & 12. Milan Sajiv suffered the narrowest of defeats against the same player by scores of 11-7, 15-13, 11-13, 11-13, 11-13. Samuel Pang showed great promise for the future as was demonstrated by his loss to Lewis Acton 11-13, 11-13, 11-5, 11-13.

The girls fared better over the weekend with Danielle Kelly winning 4/14 with victories over Yorkshire's Ruby Chan, Staffordshire's Molly Hancock and Kent's Scarlett O'Neil & Ruth Marsden. Although she suffered 10 losses she played some brilliant table tennis in patches. Isabelle Joubaily chalked up 10/14 (71%), with notable wins over Megan Dillon (Lancashire) and Gauri Duhan (Yorkshire).
